

CLAUSES

DIRECTIONS: Underline the subordinate clause, put parentheses around prep. phrases,
Then find sentence pattern of main clause and subordinate clause.

S V S V

Example: 1. The bell must have rung before we came (to class).

2. You must have given the book to me after the bell rang.
3. Many limbs that have been broken by the storm have fallen into the street.
4. Hal has not told us the place where we are to meet.
5. Everyone knows that Jane will do her best work.
6. Who was the player who caught the last pass?
7. This particular football victory came when we needed it.
8. Bob talked about what he had seen.
9. The boys worked constantly until the task was completed.
10. Ray is the boy who caught the pass.
11. The rest of the team left while we were in class.
12. The Spanish Club Chairman said that he would call a meeting.
13. The boys have all the equipment which they need.
14. The cheerleader talked of what the committee had done.
15. We all stood up when he entered the room.
16. Mary wrote this story before she came to school today.
17. The book that you saw on the table was mine.
18. Dave's assurance of success is that he studies carefully.
19. That he does work well is evident to us all.
20. We quit after the sun had set.