

Johnson County Community College Hall of Fame

Cammie Banker-Reynolds

Athlete
Inducted 2007

Cammie Banker-Reynolds was a seven-time All-American at JCCC, competing in cross country and track and field. Her sophomore year, Banker-Reynolds also won a national championship, winning the 5,000 meter run. Her time of 18:43.70 was a national meet record. In cross country, Banker-Reynolds earned All-American her freshman and sophomore seasons, becoming just the second JCCC athlete to be a two-time cross country All-American. She was also an outstanding student, earning NJCAA Academic All-America honors. Banker-Reynolds also ran on the 1993 marathon team that captured the first national championship in JCCC athletics history. She finished in eighth-place. She also a part of track teams that posted four top-10 finishes nationally, including two in the top-five. Banker-Reynolds completed her career at the University of Tennessee-Chattanooga where she was a two-time second-team Southern Conference performer in cross country and one-time first-team Southern Conference performer in the 10,000-meters. Banker-Reynolds was also a Southern Conference first-team academic selection her junior and senior years.

Kellie Becher

Athlete
Inducted 2007

Johnson County's first two-time All-American in softball, Kellie Becher owns a storied place in Lady Cavalier history. Becher led JCCC to seventh and fourth place national finishes in 1991 and 1992 respectively. Her teams also won two conference and region championships. She won 44 games in her career, and pitched an amazing five no-hitters. She was the first true power pitcher to come through the JCCC ranks, recording an 443 career strikeouts. She ranked second nationally her sophomore in strikeouts with 263 and earned run average at 0.53, both school records at the time. Becher also was twice honored as a NFCA All-American, and was named as a first-team NJCAA All-Tournament player following the 1992 tournament. She also was named team MVP and selected the JCCC Female Athlete of the Year in 1992. Becher continued her career at Missouri State where she was a first-team All-Missouri Valley Conference selection her junior and senior years. Her senior year she was selected the MVC Player of the Year, becoming just the third in school history to earn that honor. She also was named to the NFCA All-Midwest Region team and voted Missouri State's co-Outstanding Female Athlete. She holds single-season school records with 31 wins, 36 games started, 16 shutouts and tied for most complete games with 33. She is second on MSU's single-season charts with 253.1 innings pitched and 262 strikeouts. Becher is the only MSU pitcher to throw back-to-back no hitters in the same day (4-1-94). She was inducted to Missouri State's Hall of Fame in 2001.

Shawn Beyer

Athlete
Inducted 2007

Shawn Beyer closed out his career at JCCC as the all-time leader in points (100), goals (38), and assists (24), all marks which stand today. His sophomore season, Beyer set a school record with 60 points, and earned NJCAA All-Region VI and NJCAA All-American honors. Beyer was also an all-region performer his freshman year. In his two seasons, JCCC posted a mark of 40-3-1, the best mark of any two-year span in team history, and won a Region VI title his sophomore season. He went on to continue his career at the University of Evansville, where he led the Missouri Valley Conference in scoring and earned NCAA Division I All-American. Following his senior year, Beyer was selected by the Kansas City Attack in the NPSL annual draft in 1996, and posted a tremendous rookie season, earning selection to the NPSL All-Rookie team. He was the Attack's No. 1 pick and the third player taken overall. He later played for the Philadelphia Kixx of the NPSL. While with the Kixx, Beyer set a team record netting six goals in one game during the 1999 season. In 2001, he joined the San Diego Sockers of the MISL, and helped them to a runner-up MISL finish that season.

Beth Hinkebein-Heil

Athlete
Inducted 2007

Beth Hinkebein-Heil was a two-year starter at JCCC. She amassed 837 points in her career, an average of 13.7 points per game. That total ranked as the seventh-best in JCCC history. She also ranks ninth in career rebounds (475), eighth in career assists (208), second in career steals (187), seventh in career field goal percentage (.492), ninth in career free throws (155) and fourth in career free throw percentage (.728). Hinkebein-Heil is also one of only seven JCCC players to earn East Jayhawk All-conference honors as a freshman and sophomore. In 1996-97, her sophomore season, Hinkebein-Heil also earned All-Region VI honors after leading JCCC in 10 of 13 season statistical categories. She continued her career at UMKC.

In two seasons with the Kangaroos, Hinkebein started 53 of 54 games and averaged 7.6 points. She led the team in steals her senior year and ranks among the top 10 all-time while only playing to seasons. Hinkebein-Heil also played one season professionally with the Kansas City Legacy.

Jami King

Athlete
Inducted 2007

At the 1999 NJCAA Tennis Championships, Jami King became the first All-American and national champion in JCCC women's tennis history, as she dominated the No. 2 singles bracket. After a bye in the first round, King, the seventh seed, opened with a 6-0, 6-0 win. She then followed by knocking off the No. 2, No. 3 and No. 4 seeds consecutively, and all in straight sets, to win the national championship. King finished the year with a 15-4 record, which tied the school record at No. 2 singles. She finished her singles career with a record of 25-8, the fourth highest win total in JCCC history. However, King wasn't done that day. She later became the first two-time All-American, reaching the finals with teammate Julia Ball at No. 2 doubles. Her performance helped JCCC to a third-place finish, the highest in program history. King continued her career at Missouri Southern University, where she played at the No. 3 and 4 singles slots, and No. 2 doubles. Following graduation in 2002, King earned certification as a USPTA teaching professional, and has taught tennis in Kansas, Missouri, Colorado and Hawaii.

Chris Lollar

Athlete
Inducted 2007

Chris Lollar became the first player in Johnson County history to earn first-team All-American honors. He also is the first player to be named the NJCAA Player of the Year. Lollar played a key role in leading the Cavaliers to a 30-6 record and a national championship. Lollar wasted little time adjusting to the collegiate game. He set school assist records for a game (19) and season (309), and shattered the season record by 69 assists. His 309 assists are the third highest season total in Region VI basketball history. On the season, he posted 13 games with double figure assists. But Lollar was equally effective as a scorer. He scored in double figures 22 times, including a career high 20 points on two occasions. In the national championship game, Lollar hit three 3-point baskets and finished with 11 points and seven assists. Lollar received the A. Fred Pohlman Sportsman Award at the national tournament. He also was selected as an East Jayhawk All-Conference and All-Region VI D-II performer. He finished the season averaging 10.7 points and 8.6 assists per game. Lollar also led the team with 92 steals. Lollar was selected as a preseason All-American prior to his sophomore season. Lollar capped his career by becoming the all-time leader in assists at JCCC, finishing with 489. He went on to play two seasons at the University of Auburn.

Staci Lowe

Athlete
Inducted 2007

One of a three 3-sport athletes in JCCC history, Staci Lowe was the 1995 NJCAA national champion in the javelin posting a mark of 153'2". Her effort helped JCCC to a fifth-place team finish at nationals. She set the school record earlier in the season with a mark 157'5". She still owns the top five marks ever posted in team history. She was also the Region VI and East Jayhawk Conference champion in the javelin and record holder. Lowe also played two seasons for the JCCC women's basketball team and one year for the volleyball team. The volleyball team went 37-14 and were crowned conference champions. She was received the team's Cavalier Award that season, and was named all-tournament at the Graceland Tournament. She also graduated with honors from JCCC. Lowe began her collegiate career at Kansas State University.

As a freshman, she placed fifth at the Big 8 championship in the javelin, and earned Academic All-Big 8 honors. After her time at JCCC, Lowe returned to KSU where she won captured the final Big 8 championship in the javelin in 1996, and the first Big 12 championship in the javelin in 1997. She also earned Academic Big 12 honors her junior and senior years. Lowe also earned USAA All-American Scholar honors in 1996 and 1997. In 2000, Lowe ranked 16th in the U.S. in the women's javelin.

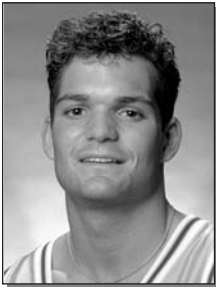

Jennifer Mullen

Athlete
Inducted 2007

Jennifer Mullen won two conference titles, a region title, posted two top-10 finishes at nationals as a member of JCCC's cross country team. Her freshman year, she placed seventh, and was the first to garner All-American honors. She followed with an amazing sophomore season, winning both the conference and region titles, and placing second at nationals, helping JCCC to a third-place team finish. Mullen currently owns six of the top 20 marks all-time at JCCC. Her best time of 18:06 over a 5k course was a school record, and currently ranks second all-time. Her efforts in cross country helped lead JCCC to two conference and region championships, and a fifth and third-place showing at nationals. On the track, Mullen garnered All-American in the indoor two-mile run, placing second at the 1989 championship. She owns all five of the top performances at JCCC in the two-mile run. Outdoors, Mullen was a four-time conference champion, winning the 5,000-meters and 10,000-meters her freshman, and the 3,000-meters and 5,000-meter races her sophomore season. She records in the 3,000-meters and 5,000-meters, and currently ranks fifth and fourth respectively on JCCC's all-time list.

Roman Totta

Athlete
Inducted 2007

Roman Totta left JCCC as the program's most prolific 3-point shooter and today he still holds that distinction. Totta hit 156 career 3-point baskets, including 91 his sophomore season. He also scored 535 points his sophomore year, which ranked 15th on the season scoring chart. His 835 career points ranked eighth all-time. In all during his sophomore season, Totta set seven individual records and finished second in 3-point field goal percentage in the region with 51 percent. He earned East Jayhawk Conference honors in both his freshman and sophomore seasons. Totta went on to finish his career at the University of Wyoming. His senior season, Totta averaged 10 points per game for the Cowboys. Totta returned to JCCC for the 1995-96 season to serve as an assistant coach to Mike Jeffers. The team posted a 20-11 mark and were 11-7 in the East Jayhawk Conference. Totta also coached basketball and baseball at Quincy University.