Domestic Relations Mediation Training

Apply mediation principles to situations involving divorcing parents who are in dispute over their children, disputes pertaining to access to their children or co-parenting matters. Course material includes a review of mediation principles, application to divorce situations, child development, conflict theory, ethics, Kansas laws, resource development, and networking. Participate in several role-play activities to practice your skill development. Upon completion of this course and a Domestic Practicum you can apply with the state of Kansas to be an approved domestic mediator.

Prerequisite: Principles of Core Mediation

Approved in MO for 27.1 CLE hours, including 3 hours of Ethics. Approved in KS for 24 CLE hours and 28.5 CDRE hours, including 3 hours of domestic violence.

NEW! How Your Assumptions about Listening Might be Hurting Your Mediation

You've probably heard that active listening is the key to mediation, but is that true? Explore the myths of listening and dissect the most recent research that explores listening as a brain-based habit. Included will be the ECHO Listening Profile™, a scientific way to measure your listening dominances and blind spots. Learn how to strengthen your blind spots, as well as learn how to identify and speak into other's dominances so that you can better align communication through the Power of Listening. Walk away with tools that will help you more effectively work with your clients and colleagues to achieve greater understanding in less time.

Approved in MO for 3.2 CLE hours. Approval for KS 3.5 CLE hours and 3.5 CDRE hours.

“

This is by far the most useful continuing education course I have ever taken as a mediator and a lawyer. Almost anyone could benefit even if they don't want to become a mediator.

Lisa B.

This was a great course. I will be able to use this information in my next mediation.
