

The Associate of Arts (A.A.) with an emphasis in Administration of Justice collaborates well with the Criminal Justice and Legal Studies degree programs at Washburn University. The Bachelor of Criminal Justice and the Bachelor of Legal Studies at Washburn University allow students to receive advanced educational opportunities and obtain productive careers in the following majors:

- Corrections
 - Prepare students for federal, state, and local corrections agencies.
- Law Enforcement
 - Designed to introduce all aspects of the criminal justice profession with an emphasis on the theoretical and practical aspects of law enforcement.
- Forensic Investigation
 - Designed to provide students with a balanced interdisciplinary education in forensic investigations emphasizing the practical issues and theoretical concepts employed by forensic professionals.
- Security Administration
 - Emphasizing practical issues and theoretical concepts related to security, safety, fire, crime prevention, investigations, law enforcement, and the social sciences.
- Legal Studies
 - Program concentrates on general topics such as terminology, legal research, legal writing, civil procedure, and professional ethics.

These programs are designed to produce knowledgeable students who possess the necessary theoretical, practical, and critical thinking skills to compete in today's job market. Faculty bring practical and academic experience to the classroom and are committed to excellence in teaching. Diversity is valued in the Criminal Justice and Legal Studies degree programs, and faculty are dedicated to producing ethical graduates who are prepared to succeed in their chosen profession.
